Strategic Plan and Diversity Leadership

How does the firm's leadership communicate the importance of diversity to everyone at the firm?

Tatum Hillman Hickerson & Powell, LLP (THP) communicates diversity in firm meetings and conferences. THP is a 100% women owned law firm, certified by the Women's Business Enterprise National Council. It is truly the next generation of law firms providing diverse attorneys a professional law firm with standards of excellence in a non-traditional environment. THP is proud to have in its mission the development and advancement of lawyers that are diverse by providing a unique and supportive structure in which all partners are able to work from home offices, while providing the same or better expertise at a better level of service, communication and responsiveness than a client would find at a traditional large firm. We do not labor under the same economic inefficiencies of traditional law firm service models.

Who has primary responsibility for leading diversity initiatives at your firm?

Michelle Hickerson, Partner, Amy Hillman, Partner and Elizabeth Tatum, Partner

Does your law firm currently have a diversity committee?

Yes

If yes, does the committee's representation include one or more members of the firm's management/executive committee (or equivalent)?

Yes

If yes, how many attorneys are on the committee, and in 2013, what was the total number of hours collectively spent by the committee in the furtherance of the firm's diversity initiatives?

Total attorneys on committee: 3

Total hours spent on diversity: 285

Does the committee and/or diversity leader establish and set goals or objectives consistent with management's priorities?

Yes

Has the firm undertaken a formal or informal diversity program or set of initiatives aimed at increasing the diversity of the firm?

Yes

If yes, is it formal or informal?

Formal. THP Partners have an initiative to seek diverse partners, as well as new ways to help diverse young lawyers and law students. These initiatives are discussed in all partnership meetings and conferences and reports are made on actions taken.

How often does the firm's management review the firm's diversity progress/results?

Quarterly

How is the firm's diversity committee and/or firm management held accountable for achieving results?

Partners are reconsidered if reports reveal that initiatives have not been taken. This is not a problem for THP, as diversity is a top priority for all partners.

Is your firm minority-owned or women-owned?

Yes

Retention and Professional Development

Please identify the specific steps you are taking to reduce the attrition rate of diverse attorneys.

- Develop and/or support internal employee affinity groups (e.g., networks within the firm for minorities, women, gay/lesbian attorneys, or individuals with disabilities)
- Increase/review compensation relative to competition
- Increase/improve current work/life programs
- Adopt dispute resolution process
- Succession plan includes emphasis on diversity and greater inclusion of non-white men and women in firm leadership
- Work with diverse attorneys to develop career advancement plans
- Introduce diverse attorneys to key clients, including to lead engagements
- Review work assignments and hours billed to key client matters to make sure diverse attorneys, particularly non-white attorneys (i.e., minority attorneys, for whom research indicates a greater inclusion problem), are not being excluded:
- Strengthen mentoring program for all attorneys
- Professional skills development program for all attorneys
- Provide a gender-neutral parental leave policy that covers adoptions
- Other (please specify)

Does your firm have part-time/flex-time policies that permit attorneys (male or female) to work alternative schedules?

Yes

Comments:

THP is proud to have in its mission the development and advancement of lawyers that are diverse by providing a unique and supportive structure in which all partners are able to work from home offices, while providing the same or better expertise at a better level of service, communication and responsiveness than a client would find at a traditional large firm.

What impact, if any, will the decision to work part time have on an attorney's ability to make a partner, or if already a partner, to remain a partner at your firm?

The THP business model provides flexibility for all partners to work on their own schedules.

How many current equity partners have worked part time, exclusive of maternity/paternity leave or short-term disability?

The Firm Says

THP is a 100% women owned law firm, certified by the Women's Business Enterprise National Council. It provides diverse attorneys a professional law firm with standards of excellence in a non-traditional environment. THP is proud to have in its mission the development and advancement of lawyers that are diverse by providing a unique and supportive structure in which all partners are able to work from home offices, while providing the same or better expertise at a better level of service, communication and responsiveness than a client would find at a traditional large firm. We do not labor under the same economic inefficiencies of traditional law firm service models.

We have found in recent years that companies are being held to a higher level of scrutiny by their boards and shareholders to cut costs and to promote diversity both internally and externally through their vendors. THP is able to accomplish both of these by providing the same service of a "big firm" without the high overhead and through diversity. Diversity is a top priority for THP Partners not only in seeking new lawyers, but also in choosing and recommending consultants and vendors for clients.

THP has virtually no attrition. This record most likely results from the very supportive career development and advancement team of attorneys, the practice of introducing other partners to firm clients for business, the practice of helping one another develop career advancement and a formal dispute resolution process.
