E-mails, Website, Meetings, Pro Bono Work, Community Service Activities

Who has primary responsibility for leading diversity initiatives at your firm?

Jonathan Radke, Partner, Nelson Hardiman

Does your law firm currently have a diversity committee?

Yes

If yes, do one or more members of the firm's management/executive committee (or the equivalent) serve on the diversity committee?

Yes

If yes, how many attorneys are on the committee, and in 2019, what was the total number of hours collectively spent by the committee in the furtherance of the firm's diversity initiatives?

Total attorneys on committee: 4

Total hours spent on diversity: 50

Does the committee and/or diversity leader establish and set goals or objectives consistent with management's priorities?

Yes

If yes or partially, please explain.

The diversity committee meets monthly to establish and reprioritize goals and objectives as the firm evolves. The diversity committee frequently takes surveys of the firm to find out what would be most meaningful for them and how they define diversity to take a temperature check on our diverse team.

Has the firm undertaken a formal or informal diversity program or set of initiatives aimed at increasing the diversity of the firm?

Yes

If yes, is it formal or informal?

Formal/informal. Fostering an engaging, zealous, and successful environment among our attorneys is essential to our development and retention efforts. Nelson Hardiman provides the following range of resources to ensure that its attorneys build on their common values and goals and are able to create advantage and strength from their differences: Mentoring: Our mentoring program is designed to advance communication and a sense of community, increase each attorney's legal expertise in all aspects of the healthcare field, and encourage thoughtful analysis and development of innovative ideas. Training, Education, and Resources: Nelson Hardiman invests in the long-term career development of its attorneys and ensures that each attorney has a fair and equal opportunity to thrive within the firm. Work-Life Balance: The firm is committed to promoting a work-life balance for its attorneys and staff, including accommodating special needs and flexible work schedules. Nelson Hardiman seeks to recruit a diverse workforce, enhancing our ability to serve the needs of our healthcare clients and creating a more dynamic workplace for all of our attorneys. Our recruitment efforts reinforce the firm's ongoing commitment to a diverse and inclusive environment aligned with our stated mission. We recruit attorneys representing an array of ethnicities, backgrounds, cultures and experiences. Nelson Hardiman steadfastly supports and encourages its attorneys' participation and leadership in professional and community-based diversity organizations. Our attorneys are members of, and/or the firm supports, local and national organizations.

How often does the firm's management review the firm's diversity progress/results?

Annually

How is the firm's diversity committee and/or firm management held accountable for achieving results?

[No response]

Is your firm minority-owned or women-owned?

Yes

Retention and Professional Development

Please identify the specific steps you are taking to reduce the attrition rate of diverse attorneys.

- Develop and/or support internal employee affinity groups (e.g., networks within the firm for minorities, women, LGBTQ attorneys, or individuals with disabilities)
- Increase/review compensation relative to competition
- Implement procedures to ensure gender pay equity
- Increase/improve current work/life programs
- Adopt dispute resolution process
- Succession plan includes emphasis on diversity and greater inclusion of minority men and women in firm leadership
- Work with diverse attorneys to develop career advancement plans
- Introduce diverse attorneys to key clients, including to lead engagements
- Review work assignments and hours billed to key client matters to make sure diverse attorneys, particularly minority attorneys (for whom research indicates a greater inclusion problem), are not being excluded
- Strengthen mentoring program for all attorneys
- Professional skills development program for all attorneys
- Provide a gender-neutral parental leave policy that covers adoptions
- Other (please specify)

Does your firm have part-time/flex-time policies that permit attorneys (male or female) to work alternative schedules?

Yes

What impact, if any, will the decision to work part time have on an attorney's ability to make a partner, or if already a partner, to remain a partner at your firm?

No impact

How many current equity partners have worked part time, exclusive of maternity/paternity leave or short-term disability?

The Firm Says

At Nelson Hardiman, we embrace diversity and a culture of inclusion, not only because we recognize the value in each other and our varied experiences, but because we understand that by fostering diversity, and the uniqueness of different insights and talents, we are better able to provide the positive outcomes that our clients deserve. We created a Diversity and Inclusion Committee that meets monthly to promote these goals and continually work towards the firm's stated mission.

Nelson Hardiman recognizes that collective strength requires diverse perspectives and backgrounds and is committed to a working environment that values differences, ensures equality, and empowers our entire team to succeed. We strive to attract, retain, promote, and share leadership with a diverse team of individuals that is best equipped to face the challenges and meet the needs of all our healthcare clients and the industry as a whole.

Fostering an engaging, zealous, and successful environment among our attorneys is essential to our development and retention efforts. Nelson Hardiman provides the following range of resources to ensure that its attorneys build on their common values and goals and are able to create advantage and strength from their differences:

Mentoring: Our mentoring program is designed to advance communication and a sense of community, increase each attorney's legal expertise in all aspects of the healthcare field, and encourage thoughtful analysis and development of innovative ideas.

Training, Education, and Resources: Nelson Hardiman invests in the long-term career development of its attorneys and ensures that each attorney has a fair and equal opportunity to thrive within the firm. Work-Life Balance: The firm is committed to promoting a work-life balance for its attorneys and staff, including accommodating special needs and flexible work schedules.

Nelson Hardiman seeks to recruit a diverse workforce, enhancing our ability to serve the needs of our healthcare clients and creating a more dynamic workplace for all of our attorneys. Our recruitment efforts reinforce the firm's ongoing commitment to a diverse and inclusive environment aligned with our stated mission. We recruit attorneys representing an array of ethnicities, backgrounds, cultures and experiences.

Nelson Hardiman steadfastly supports and encourages its attorneys' participation and leadership in professional and community-based diversity organizations. Our attorneys are members of, and/or the firm supports, local and national organizations.
