Strategic Plan and Diversity Leadership

How does the firm's leadership communicate the importance of diversity to everyone at the firm?

The importance of diversity within the firm is conveyed during presentations during partnership meetings, associate training events, minority retreats, and during weekly water cooler video meetings, which are open to all attorneys and staff within the firm. There is an effort to insert diversity discussions and/or considerations into every major event within the firm, as well as regular communications. The Diversity Committee's efforts are further communicated to all attorneys in a monthly managing partner report, which is distributed to all attorneys throughout the firm.

Who has primary responsibility for leading diversity initiatives at your firm?

Clarence Wilbon, Chair of the Diversity Committee

Does your law firm currently have a diversity committee?

Yes

If yes, do one or more members of the firm's management/executive committee (or the equivalent) serve on the diversity committee?

Yes

If yes, how many attorneys are on the committee, and in 2019, what was the total number of hours collectively spent by the committee in the furtherance of the firm's diversity initiatives?

Total attorneys on committee: 5

Total hours spent on diversity: 115

Does the committee and/or diversity leader establish and set goals or objectives consistent with management's priorities?

Yes

Has the firm undertaken a formal or informal diversity program or set of initiatives aimed at increasing the diversity of the firm?

Yes

If yes, is it formal or informal?

Both.

How often does the firm's management review the firm's diversity progress/results?

Monthly

How is the firm's diversity committee and/or firm management held accountable for achieving results?

The Diversity Committee submits its goals to the leadership of the firm on a yearly basis. In that report, the Committee additionally reviews the extent to which it has achieved its goals from the previous year. The Committee additionally reports to the Managing Partner on a monthly basis to provide information on current efforts, recent accomplishments, and upcoming events to keep individuals apprised on the progress of the Committee. The Managing Partner in turn reports this information to all attorneys on a monthly basis.

Is your firm minority-owned or women-owned?

No

Pipeline Initiatives

Does your firm actively engage in initiatives to feed the diversity pipeline by encouraging minority students to consider law as a career and/or assisting them in pursuing such opportunities?

- Participate in established pipeline programs, such as SEO, Legal Outreach, Prep for Prep or Street Law*
- Fund scholarships for minority high school or college students*
- Mentor minority high school or college students*
- Participate in or host mock trial programs or career events*
- Provide internships or employment to minority high school or college students*
- Outreach to middle school students*

Please discuss any additional efforts to reach out to diverse undergraduates, high school, middle school or grade school students.

We were in the process of coordinating the launch of the Street Law program from two of our offices just prior to the shutdown caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. We have been in contact with the director of the street law initiative, and are considering launching the program on a remote basis if schools remain closed during the upcoming school year. In addition, a partner in our New Orleans office participates in a career day program in local high schools, which includes a trip to our New Orleans office. Many individuals within our footprint are additionally involved in similar efforts on both formal and informal bases.

Recruitment - New Associates

Does your firm annually recruit at any of the following types of institutions?

Ivy League law schools: No

Other private law schools: Yes

Public state law schools: Yes

Law schools of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs): Yes

Diversity job fairs: We have in the past, and will do so annually going forward.

Do you have any special outreach efforts directed to encourage minority law students to consider your firm?

- Hold a reception for minority students
- Advertise in minority law student association publications
- Participate in or host minority law student job fairs
- Sponsor minority law student association events
- Firm lawyers participate on career panels at schools
- Outreach to leadership of minority student organizations
- Scholarships or intern/fellowships for minority students
- Other (please specify)

Do you have any programs specifically targeted at first-year students?

We are launching a 1L Diversity Scholarship this year.

Retention and Professional Development

Please identify the specific steps you are taking to reduce the attrition rate of diverse attorneys.

- Develop and/or support internal employee affinity groups (e.g., networks within the firm for minorities, women, LGBTQ attorneys, or individuals with disabilities)
- Increase/review compensation relative to competition
- Implement procedures to ensure gender pay equity
- Increase/improve current work/life programs
- Adopt dispute resolution process
- Succession plan includes emphasis on diversity and greater inclusion of minority men and women in firm leadership
- Work with diverse attorneys to develop career advancement plans
- Introduce diverse attorneys to key clients, including to lead engagements
- Review work assignments and hours billed to key client matters to make sure diverse attorneys, particularly minority attorneys (for whom research indicates a greater inclusion problem), are not being excluded
- Strengthen mentoring program for all attorneys
- Professional skills development program for all attorneys
- Provide a gender-neutral parental leave policy that covers adoptions
- Other (please specify)

Does your firm have part-time/flex-time policies that permit attorneys (male or female) to work alternative schedules?

Yes

What impact, if any, will the decision to work part time have on an attorney's ability to make a partner, or if already a partner, to remain a partner at your firm?

None

How many current equity partners have worked part time, exclusive of maternity/paternity leave or short-term disability?

We have five (5) non-equity female partners who work part time.

The Firm Says

Adams and Reese is a multidisciplinary law firm with nearly 300 attorneys across 15 markets throughout the southern United States and Washington, D.C. The firm provides legal services on a regional, national, and international level. Adams and Reese has been awarded many distinctions, including the The American Lawyer's Am Law 200, and the National Law Journal's top 200 on the NLJ 350 list of the nation's largest law firms.

Mentoring, promotion and retention of women and underrepresented attorneys remains a top priority of the firm. As a firm, we are proud of our women attorneys and attorneys from underrepresented groups, as they lead by example and serve not only in the leadership of the firm, but also as leaders in the community.

The Diversity Committee is committed to creating and fostering an inclusive, supportive, and successful environment for all of our attorneys. The Committee is constantly evaluating new and better methods to achieve this goal, and aims to not only achieve excellence in this area, but to be on the forefront of these efforts.
