Retention and Professional Development

Please identify the specific steps you are taking to reduce the attrition rate of diverse attorneys.

- Develop and/or support internal employee affinity groups (e.g., networks within the firm for minorities, women, LGBTQ attorneys, or individuals with disabilities)
- Increase/review compensation relative to competition
- Implement procedures to ensure gender pay equity
- Increase/improve current work/life programs
- Adopt dispute resolution process
- Succession plan includes emphasis on diversity and greater inclusion of minority men and women in firm leadership
- Work with diverse attorneys to develop career advancement plans
- Introduce diverse attorneys to key clients, including to lead engagements
- Review work assignments and hours billed to key client matters to make sure diverse attorneys, particularly minority attorneys (for whom research indicates a greater inclusion problem), are not being excluded
- Strengthen mentoring program for all attorneys
- Professional skills development program for all attorneys
- Provide a gender-neutral parental leave policy that covers adoptions
- Other (please specify)

Does your firm have part-time/flex-time policies that permit attorneys (male or female) to work alternative schedules?

Yes

What impact, if any, will the decision to work part time have on an attorney's ability to make a partner, or if already a partner, to remain a partner at your firm?

An attorney's decision to work part time, or on adjusted billable hours, is only a factor in the totality of the attorney's performance. Working on an adjusted schedule does not prevent an attorney from achieving or maintaining partner status.

How many current equity partners have worked part time, exclusive of maternity/paternity leave or short-term disability?

The Firm Says

At Williams Mullen, we are committed to employing a diverse and inclusive workplace which makes us better at what we do — serving our clients and our communities. We are committed to employing a diverse workforce that is inclusive of thoughts and ideas, without regard to race, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, creed, medical conditions including pregnancy, disability, genetic information, marriage or parental status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or Veteran's status.

Our business model and strategic plan are reflective of our commitment to diversity and inclusion. We recognize that greater diversity enhances our ability to better understand and serve our clients and community and that our working environment is enriched by inclusion. Our diverse and inclusive atmosphere includes both internal and external programs and initiatives. Our diversity and inclusion efforts are spearheaded by our Diversity and Inclusion Committee and employee resource groups (Attorneys of Color, LGBTQ Initiative, and Women's Initiative).

Our standing Diversity Committee is comprised of both attorneys and professional staff and includes seven members of our Board of Directors. The Committee seeks innovative and meaningful ways to enhance diversity and inclusion through the establishment of annual goals. The Committee continually emphasizes the importance of diversity and inclusion in the firm's recruiting, retention, mentoring, leadership development, training, and community outreach.
