Strategic Plan and Diversity Leadership

How does the firm's leadership communicate the importance of diversity to everyone at the firm?

The leadership at Potter Anderson communicates the importance of diversity to everyone at the firm through a number of vehicles. The firm's website has diversity prominently displayed, with links to significant details about diversity activities at the firm. In addition, an update on diversity is provided on the firm's diversity website that has been launched internally to share information with the entire firm on diversity-focused initiatives. The Executive Committee of the firm supports a number of firm-wide activities throughout the year for all attorneys and staff on the importance of diversity and inclusion. Also, when members of the firm receive recognition for external activities related to diversity, these accomplishments are shared with the entire firm through email notifications and the firm's website.

Who has primary responsibility for leading diversity initiatives at your firm?

William L. Chapman is Chair of the Diversity & Inclusion Committee.

Does your law firm currently have a diversity committee?

Yes

If yes, do one or more members of the firm's management/executive committee (or the equivalent) serve on the diversity committee?

Yes

If yes, how many attorneys are on the committee, and in 2019, what was the total number of hours collectively spent by the committee in the furtherance of the firm's diversity initiatives?

Total attorneys on committee: 9

Total hours spent on diversity: [No response]

Comments: The Diversity and Inclusion Committee meets bi-monthly, although much of the work is done by subcommittees and by task forces. Some of these initiatives include non-attorney staff members who actively participate. Each bi-monthly meeting of the Committee lasts approximately one hour. Collectively, hundreds of hours are spent on diversity initiatives.

Does the committee and/or diversity leader establish and set goals or objectives consistent with management's priorities?

Yes

Has the firm undertaken a formal or informal diversity program or set of initiatives aimed at increasing the diversity of the firm?

Yes

If yes, is it formal or informal?

The firm has undertaken a formal diversity program focused on increasing the diversity of the firm, which includes recruitment activities as well as retention initiatives. The goals and objectives of the Committee are stated in the Diversity Strategic Plan which was adopted by the firm's Executive Committee. The Plan includes goals, metrics, and action steps to be implemented by the Diversity and Inclusion Committee.

How often does the firm's management review the firm's diversity progress/results?

Bi-monthly

How is the firm's diversity committee and/or firm management held accountable for achieving results?

Reports on diversity and inclusion activities are submitted to the Executive Committee and then conveyed to the partnership or the partnership is given a direct presentation. This approach allows for dialogue between partners and Committee leadership on diversity goals, activities and results.

Is your firm minority-owned or women-owned?

No

Pipeline Initiatives

Does your firm actively engage in initiatives to feed the diversity pipeline by encouraging minority students to consider law as a career and/or assisting them in pursuing such opportunities?

- Participate in established pipeline programs, such as SEO, Legal Outreach, Prep for Prep or Street Law
- Fund scholarships for minority high school or college students
- Mentor minority high school or college students
- Participate in or host mock trial programs or career events
- Provide internships or employment to minority high school or college students
- Outreach to middle school students

Please discuss any additional efforts to reach out to diverse undergraduates, high school, middle school or grade school students.

The firm partners with a local high school to host diverse high school students for a day. The students visit the firm and speak with our associates to learn about career possibilities. Additionally, our attorneys speak at career day panels at local high schools to encourage diverse students to enter the legal profession.

Recruitment - New Associates

Does your firm annually recruit at any of the following types of institutions?

Ivy League law schools: Cornell, Columbia, University of Pennsylvania.

Other private law schools: Boston College, Boston University, Delaware Law School, George Washington, Georgetown, Notre Dame, Syracuse, Tulane, Vanderbilt, Washington & Lee, Washington University in St. Louis

Law schools of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs): Howard University

Diversity job fairs: Delaware Minority Job Fair and Philadelphia Diversity Job Fair

Do you have any special outreach efforts directed to encourage minority law students to consider your firm?

- Hold a reception for minority students
- Advertise in minority law student association publications
- Participate in or host minority law student job fairs
- Sponsor minority law student association events
- Firm lawyers participate on career panels at schools
- Outreach to leadership of minority student organizations
- Scholarships or intern/fellowships for minority students
- Other (please specify)

Do you have any programs specifically targeted at first-year students?

The firm participates in regional law school programs, such as panels, practice area programs, and mock interviews on campus to profile opportunities at Potter Anderson and in Delaware. The firm participates in the LCLD 1L Scholars Program, however the inclusion of first year law students in the summer program depends on the needs of the firm.⁸

Retention and Professional Development

Please identify the specific steps you are taking to reduce the attrition rate of diverse attorneys.

- Develop and/or support internal employee affinity groups (e.g., networks within the firm for minorities, women, LGBTQ attorneys, or individuals with disabilities)
- Increase/review compensation relative to competition
- Implement procedures to ensure gender pay equity
- Increase/improve current work/life programs
- Adopt dispute resolution process
- Succession plan includes emphasis on diversity and greater inclusion of minority men and women in firm leadership
- Work with diverse attorneys to develop career advancement plans
- Introduce diverse attorneys to key clients, including to lead engagements
- Review work assignments and hours billed to key client matters to make sure diverse attorneys, particularly minority attorneys (for whom research indicates a greater inclusion problem), are not being excluded
- Strengthen mentoring program for all attorneys
- Professional skills development program for all attorneys
- Provide a gender-neutral parental leave policy that covers adoptions
- Other (please specify)

Does your firm have part-time/flex-time policies that permit attorneys (male or female) to work alternative schedules?

Yes

What impact, if any, will the decision to work part time have on an attorney's ability to make a partner, or if already a partner, to remain a partner at your firm?

[No response]

How many current equity partners have worked part time, exclusive of maternity/paternity leave or short-term disability?
